

all aboard for lunch on the Thames networking in style.

I am delighted to invite you to join us on our very own Clipper ship, which will be docked next to Tower Bridge, for our lunchtime session with two captivating guest speakers; Marc Timmerman, who will share invaluable insights on cultural transformation within the workplace, followed by employer brand expert, Professor Jonathan Wilson, who has worked with governments, organisations, brands, and individuals on bringing branding, business strategy, and cultures to life.

There'll be plenty of time to mingle with fellow guests whilst soaking up the atmosphere and ambience on board the Clipper Stad Amsterdam.
